CHEADLE PIONEERS MOVE TO ONTARIO

Mr. and Mrs. A. Silverthorne, pioneer residents of the Cheadle district since 1901 are leaving in the near future to make their home near Toronto. Their departure is very sincerely regretted by a very large number of people not only of the Cheadle district but also in Calgary where they resided for some seventeen years.

Mr. and Mrs. Silverthorne home-stayed in the Cheadle district in 1902 when the only other settlers were the McLeans, the Hartells, T. L. and Stephen Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Belvar.

Mr. Silverthorne served on the C. P. R. Department of Natural Resources in Calgary, as Inspector of farming operations, for seventeen years and 2 years on Demonstration Farm at Brooks. Apart from this they have made their home continuously in Cheadle.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Silverthorne have been citizens of the best type, giving their aid to every worthy enterprise.

Their two daughters both reside in Toronto, Mrs. Van Buren (Violet) and Miss Mary Silverthorne, who is Assistant Professor in the Library of the Toronto University.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Scheffner of Stettler have purchased the Silverthorne farm and will move in shortly.

Cheadle and district will sincerely regret the loss of these good citizens but wish them continued good health and happiness for many years to come.

A gentleman from Ottawa was flying from the Capital to Vancouver.

As the plane landed at Toronto a little red truck rushed up to refuel it. The same thing happened at Armstrong and Winnipeg. As the passengers stepped out to stretch their legs at Winnipeg the Ottawa man gazed interestedly at the little red gas truck.

"These planes sure make wonderful time, don't they?" enquired a fellow passenger.

"Yes," drawled the Ottawa man. "And that little red truck ain't doing so bad either."

Leadership is not ability to get back at our critics but to get ahead with an answer.

Publisher was an interested guest at all sessions.

THE 'OUT-SIDE'

● JOE CITIZEN SAYS—

You know I always think it queer that such a land as this one here should have to coax and beg and plead for money for an urgent need.

Our loans I grant you, end up strong—but how they crawl and creep along—And no one asked to GIVE a dime but just to LEND cash for a time!

You'd think that everybody would be buying all the bonds they could to speed the day that sees our men brought back to Canada again.

And also help to make it sure—a good sound peace that will endure! Yes sir, we ought to back this loan with every dollar that we own.

To stop right now and pare and prune would be to quit the job too soon. And THAT would certainly look grim to those who offered life and limb.

● Cotton Bags—

The difficulty of keeping enough cotton bags in circulation during a period of short supply made it necessary to restrict their use for other purposes than that of containers. Rural housewives will be glad to know that now the stocks of used bags have increased so that it is possible for restrictions to be removed. Used cotton bags need no longer be returned, and can also be bought for conversion in to household articles.

Mrs. Steinbach and daughters were Hussar visitors from Pollackville on Sunday.

CANADA'S WESTERN NORTHLAND

No developments since the days of the Klondike gold rush have focused so much attention on Canada's Western Northland as the building of the Alaska Highway and the completion of the Canol project. But during the past ten years this territory has seen a continuous and progressive mining development which, although less spectacular and less publicized, has nevertheless been a major factor in bringing this great hinterland into its rightful place in the Canadian economy.

In that period the territory has yielded minerals valued at nearly $21,000,000. This does not include radium production in 1942-43, the figures of which are not available for publication. Of this total $6,655,925 was produced in the last two years. Gold, radium-silver and petroleum products made up the bulk of this mineral contribution. Copper, lead, tungsten and several other valuable minerals have also been recovered in promising quantities.

It is expected that mineral production will provide the chief source of employment in this region during the postwar years. Impetus to mining in the Territories has been stimulated by the intensive search for strategic war minerals carried on as a sequence to the geological investigations and mapping work completed by field parties sent out by the Department of Mines and Resources at Ottawa. There has been considerable activity in the Yellowknife District during 1944. More than 2500 claims have been staked there already this year and 70 mining companies are prospecting the district. Canada's newest gold field is therefore receiving its full share of attention from the mining public even in these difficult times. Construction of the road which parallels the Canol pipeline has opened up a new country for the prospector. Geological reconnaissance has been carried out along this road as well as along the Alaska Highway during the past two years.

There is also likely to be more scientific management of wildlife in this far-flung region to ensure permanency to its oldest industry - fur, which is second only to mining in the territory. The reindeer industry too, which has got off to a good start, is providing a convenient and dependable source of food and clothing for the natives along the Arctic coast, east of the Mackenzie Delta, and will form a valuable reserve against periods of scarcity in wildlife fluctuations. Considerable interest is being shown in the tourist possibilities of the Western Northland, mainly as the result of the building of the Alaska Highway. No doubt there will also be further agricultural development in suitable areas.

But the far north still remains as in the days when Robert Service wrote his "Songs of a Sourdough" - a place for the strong. It is likely to provide plenty of adventure for the younger generation when the world has settled down to peaceful pursuits once more. Already the Northwest Territories Administration at Ottawa is being inundated with inquiries about the possibilities of settlement along the Alaska Highway, maps of the Northwest Territories and the Yukon, homesteading and timber regulations, hunting, trapping and fur-trading, mining and prospecting regulations, tourist campsites, gas stations, and many other activities which are being planned by hundreds seeking wider horizons, who for the most part are busy at war jobs at the present time. In the majority of cases the applicants desire to be somewhere close to the Alaska Highway. Many of these inquiries come from the men serving with the Armed Forces of Canada and the United States. Some are from women and married couples. Some merely want to know what opportunities there are for employment without specifying any particular preference.

Since most of these inquiries are concerned mainly with territory adjacent to the Alaska Highway, correspondents are being advised that all lands situated within one mile of this highway in Yukon Territory and northern British Columbia are being reserved from disposal at the present time, that much of the region traversed by the highway is not surveyed, and that it is unlikely areas for tourist development, homesteading or other purposes will be available along the route until after the war.

It is felt that, in the interest of would-be pioneers of this last frontier country of Canada, it is well for them to know the hard facts, as well as the possibilities of employment and settlement conditions, before making up their minds to migrate. For anyone who has not dwelt for a time in these northern latitudes it is difficult to visualize conditions of life there as compared with his present environment. Only the strong in mind and body should attempt to gain a livelihood from this region, and then only after carefully weighing of all factors involved.

But many adventurous spirits will be found ready and eager to seek out the treasures which stern nature has long guarded in her northern domain; and the north may yet yield immense stores of hidden wealth still undreamed of by even the most optimistic.

The Late Irvin S. Cobb Pays Tribute to the Salvation Army

The Salvation Army lost an Advisory Board member and friend of long years' standing with the death of Irvin S. Cobb, noted humorist and writer, recently.

Mr. Cobb paid final tribute to the Organization in a letter he left, to be opened after his death, in which he spoke of the "militant zeal and unselfish devotion of these shock troops of the Lord, The Salvation Army, who fight in the trenches of sin's No Man's Land to reclaim the tortured souls and clothe the naked bodies of those whom the rest of a snobbish world forgot."

Last year, in his autobiography, "Exit Laughing," on pages 424, 425, he said further:

"Until I beheld with my own eyes what this devoted little band did for our boys overseas, it had appeared to me, as I think it had appeared to many whose training had been along orthodox lines that about The Salvation Army there was something trashy and vulgar, something designedly bombastic in its methods.

"But now I know better and the lesson abides with me. Since 1918 it has never seemed that the breezy living hymns of the street-corner meeting had cheapness in them or that the spirit of consecration was any the less inspired because of drum-beatings and flag-wavings.

"For its limited funds — it had only dimes to spend where others had double eagles — for its small personnel, for facilities given it, its Salvationists accomplished absolute miracles. This is a statement to which I believe every veteran will subscribe.

"Having seen them Over There I have taken occasion to watch what they did afterward on behalf of broken and needy humans over here, especially in the No Man's Land of Life the places where despair and degradation otherwise would thrive like weeds.

"And wartime or peacetime, I stand ready to salute these people as what surely they are — the Shock Troop of the Lord."

Now that school has started a new term here's one more for the records. Teacher — Parse the sentence, "Tom married Jane".

Each of us is both consumer and producer.

As a producer each of us would like to get MORE money for our goods or services.

As a consumer each of us wants the costs of living kept down.

But we can't have it both ways.

As long as goods are scarce and money plentiful, prices have to be controlled or they'd jump sky high.

If prices are to be kept down, then costs of production including salaries, wages and raw materials must also be controlled.

One Person Can Start It!

When any one of us:—

- offers to pay more than legal prices;
- asks higher returns for his services;
- asks higher prices for his goods.

He helps start a chain that forces every one else to do the same and nobody is better off.

THIS IS ONE OF A SERIES ISSUED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA TO EMPHASIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF PREVENTING FURTHER RISE IN THE COST OF LIVING NOW, AND DEFLATION LATER.

Tooting Our Own Horn

OCTOBER 18 throughout Canada is recognized as Newspaper Week; hence we are led to specialize a little on the vital place a newspaper and the printing plant hold in a community, whether large or small.

The paper plays an active, interested and interesting and we believe a constructive part in the life of that community.

Its bonds of interest extend to the Church, the School, the Home, the Business, the Social, the Agricultural and the general Community and any factor of progress whether local or further afield.

The general interests of these various institutions are recorded, briefly or at times at greater length thereby building a local esprit-de-corps, that goes far towards establishing a deep and living interest in one's home locality thus helping to create a desire for betterment and progress for Community.

Without these bonds of interest, any community becomes a cold, lifeless "sleepy hollow". Without the printing press the Church, the School or business in general, could not function.

Likewise without these institutions the paper would play an insignificant part — hence very plainly is shown the necessary and forceful value of the interdependence of each on the other. All for Each — and Each for All.

Nor does a paper confine its columns, apart from reading matter, only to paid advertising. Many columns of space throughout the year are given gratis to the support of worthy causes. If totalled the amount of free publicity in twelve months, would surprise even the most skeptical. However our purpose is to build for a better world and thus we help.

The work of the printer, typesetter and scribe is pretty constant, but there is a pleasure derived in developing from last week's cold lead Phoenix like new and different articles from any preceding. And as a satisfied customer is what all stores desire so do new and renewal subscriptions show the good will of our readers. The fact of our constantly increasing subscription list is our best praise.

The Standard most heartily desires here to express to our advertisers and subscribers alike, our genuine appreciation for their patronage and kind comments from time to time.

We shall strive to our utmost to merit your continued good will.

Alberta Schools Re-open

MONDAY morning in Alberta, thousands of children trooped back to school.

For some, it was the big adventure of their lives, and for others a carrying on into higher grades and further development, to fit them for positions in adult life. The teaching of Canada's youth is a work of tremendous responsibility.

Alberta is said to have the highest and most progressive Educational Standard of the Dominion.

Upon the teachers rest a responsibility, breathtaking in its importance and magnitude. Into their hands and

WE DON'T LIKE TO MENTION IT

WHEN we heard this was to be Newspaper Week all over Canada we were a bit embarrassed. There are a good many national weeks now, almost more than the possible fifty-two. Most of these seemed all well enough to us. Such a one as Ontario Week, for instance, could cause no embarrassment, save perhaps for a few tears and the need for staying away from other people. But certainly union week could cause no embarrassment to an union. An union isn't sensitive. It wouldn't object to talking about itself. In fact, an union would probably welcome the chance to talk at all. But this paper sensitive — at least it is more sensitive than an union. And so the prospect of National Newspaper Week caused embarrassment with the directors of this nation-wide affair asking us to comment on what a fine thing a newspaper is, especially this newspaper. Well, we're still embarrassed and so we have decided not to mention National Newspaper Week at all.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Madam;

In answer to your editorial entitled "Strathmore's Opportunity" may I say how thoroughly pleased I was to read your forthright statement of the need of a water system in the town of Strathmore. The need is great both from the point of view of the comfort of the residents of the town and also for the reason of the future of Strathmore as a place for living after this war is over.

We can never hope to afford it while we allow the present state of affairs to continue. Your arguments of last week were well-marshalled and to them may I add one more? What of our town pride? Have we any? Surely we must feel a sense of inferiority when we realize that other towns no larger than our own have gone ahead and installed water. It will demand courage and work, but no one can say under their directing care are given for weak or woe, in large measure, the developing of the child mentally, spiritually and socially.

In the large majority we believe our teachers recognize and realize the seriousness of this tremendous task.

For the few who do not, and thereby waste the time, and crush the hopes and inspirations of the child, no condemnation is too severe. It would be better "had a mill-stone been placed on them".

An aggressive and intelligent school board should remove such from the lists.

It is a matter for deep concern that so many schools are forced to remain closed through lack of teachers and we shall look for the return of those now in the Armed Forces to fill some of these vacancies.

For teachers and pupils alike, we bespeak a fair field with progress and success crowning their efforts.

From Around And About

— By D. A. F. —

FROM OTTAWA we read of another instance of a New Testament saying the life of a soldier who has recently returned from overseas. He was carrying it in his breast pocket when he was struck by a splinter from a mortar shell. The Testament took the impact and the splinter ripped through 264 pages to stop at First Corinthians, Chapter 15, Verse 55, which reads, "O death where is thy sting? O grave where is thy victory? But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ".

AUGUST CLEMENS, Count Von Galen, Roman Catholic Bishop of Munster in Germany has been placed under house-arrest according to a report from a British broadcast. Count von Galen has continually opposed the Nazi party and has the activities of the Gestapo as one of his special targets. I imagine that Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler can't take it any more.

A PARSON of Philadelphia, Rev. T. A. Merryweather was recently invited by J. Edgar Hoover of the F. B. I. to deliver two lectures at the National Police Academy in Washington. Mr. Merryweather is the director of the Crime Prevention Association of Philadelphia. What will they be doing next?

EVERYBODY has known for some time that General Montgomery was the kind of Christian who did not hesitate on all appropriate occasions to make frank profession of his Christianity. It is evident that General Eisenhower is a man of the same type. A London Church paper reports that on the night of the invasion he stood with a group of staff officers watching the harbour. As the fleet moved out, evidently deeply moved, he suddenly lifted himself to rigid military carriage and attention, lifted his hand reverently to a formal salute stood that way for a few solemn seconds, and then dropped his hand from that formal salute to valiant soldiers, and bowed in head in a short prayer of silence. Well may we all thank God that it is men like Montgomery that we in Strathmore lack these elements of human character.

Hats off to the past and coats off to the future as we tackle this all important factor in making our town one that is worthy of our pride.

—One interested.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill was late for a broadcast and he rushed out of 10 Downing Street to hail a cab.

"To the BBC," directed the Prime Minister.

"Sorry," said the cabbie, "that'll take too long. I want to get home in time to hear Mr. Churchill's speech." Churchill was so delighted he handed the cabbie a pound note.

"The cabbie eyed it gleefully and exclaimed, "Hop in, Mister. To H— with Churchill!"

Oh! I have lost my appetite.

And ask myself this question, Is this caused by love at first sight, Or is it indigestion?

and Eisenhower who are leading our boys.

LONDON'S famous Bow Bells in Cheapside have been heard again recently for the first time since St. Mary-le-bow was almost destroyed by bombs three years ago. All twelve bells were smashed, but a miniature church does duty on the old site and gramophone records provide bell music. It is now possible to obtain a whole peal of bells on recordings, and through amplification even the tiniest church can become "vocal".

ROCKYFORD

— By Mrs. G. M. G. —

The first snow of the fall came on Friday morning and seriously delayed all the harvest operations for some time. A great deal of the stocks are threshed but there is still considerable combining to be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Muenchrath are rejoicing to have their baby boy home; both Mrs. Muenchrath and the baby are progressing splendidly.

The schools of the district are all open again for the term. Mrs. McLean is in the Rockyford Public and has about 29 enrolled already with a probable one or two more to enter. Miss Miller of Edmonton is in charge of the Rockyford Rural High School.

Mr. Charles Griffiths has again had to be taken to the hospital as he was quite ill on Sunday. We trust he will have a speedy recovery.

The staff of the Telephone Office has changed recently. Miss Eva Piggins, agent, has resigned and Miss Helen Podhorski will take her position. Miss Florence Valle and Miss Lois Kinney will be on the staff.

Rockyford has had a busy week of fall moving. Mr. and Mrs. Halpin have had the spacious rooms above the bank renovated and now occupy them. Mrs. J. Bragg has moved to her new home the former Bradwell house. Mrs. Carl Tamas has moved to the house in which Mrs. Bragg formerly resided. Mr. and Mrs. Al Tamas are moving to the former H. Dunsmore home this week, while Mr. and Mrs. Atwell are located at the C. Johnson house.

Mr. Atwell has taken over the blacksmith shop from Mr. Oel and is at present quite busy with the harvest work repair jobs.

NAMAKA

— By M. W. —

School opened Monday morning with Miss M. I. Sanders, Principal and Miss J. Wilson in charge of the Jr. Room.

High School students going elsewhere are Mavis Mackie to Strathmore, Byron Hansen and Ruben Watts to Cluny.

Mr. Wm. Fawkes has been called to Calgary to act on the jury.

Mrs. George MacLean, who has been visiting friends and relatives at the Coast, returned just in time to bid farewell to her brother-in-law, L. A. C. Gordon Gimble, who with others left for an unknown destination.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. J. Sharp back to the Namaka district.

The teachers are living at L. R. Attkens till such time as the teachers' age is finished.

The Red Cross meeting was held at the home of Mrs. George MacLean. The supper and bazaar were discussed and arrangements made for sending parcels to the boys overseas. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Hansons on October 26th.

The next Ladies Aid Meeting will be at Mrs. George MacLean's on Oct. 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. Moss attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton at Arrowwood Sunday.

We are glad to report Mrs. Arthur Anderson is doing nicely and expects to be able to leave the hospital in the next day or two.

CHEADLE

— By Mrs. E. J. —

The W. W. Club held its first meeting of the fall at Mrs. Loudeneck's on Wednesday, September 21st. It was a somewhat special occasion, being the last meeting at which our former president, Mrs. A. Silverthorne would be present. She will shortly be leaving for the East where she and Mr. Silverthorne will be taking up another farm, nearer their family. Mrs. L. Welshimer presented her with a pretty locket, a small token of the very high esteem we all have for her. Mrs. Silverthorne replied and thanked everyone, but saying goodbye is difficult for such an old-timer. The well-wishes of the Club most certainly go with her.

The Club voted ten dollars to the "Milk for Britain Fund" and cigarettes for the boys in the service. The Ladies also drew up plans to cater at Mr. Silverthorne's sale.

Mr. Roy Miner has entered the hospital in Calgary for medical examinations.

Leland Lewis of the R. C. N. V. R. is on leave, and everyone is glad to see him at the Log Cabin again.

Mrs. Brandon is visiting her family Mr. and Mrs. Sugden before returning to her duties at Bassano.

Ogden McLean has returned to his camp after a leave spent chiefly with Mrs. McLean.

Farewell Pres'nation and Social Evening

About fifty friends and neighbors gathered in the Chedale Hall Wednesday evening, to honor Mr. and Mrs. C. Silverthorne, when a happy time as enjoyed as is the case when "Good Friends Get Together".

GIVE TO RELIEVE HUMAN SUFFERING

Several tables of Court Whist were arranged, prize winners being Mrs. A. F. Heckle and Mr. J. Garlic and consolation Mrs. D. McDougall and Mr. C. Skibsted.

Following an abundance of choice refreshments Mr. Frank Sugden called the gathering to attention and in a brief speech paid high tribute to the guests of honor and the regret all feel at their departure. On behalf of their friends and as a token of their regard he asked their acceptance of a large Mantle Chime Clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Silverthorne are deeply impressed and feelingly expressed their appreciation for both the gift and kind words.

"For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung and Farewells said.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. McLean invited a few ladies to Tea in honor of Mrs. Silverthorne. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed albeit tinged with regret at the departure of the honor guest. Many reminiscences were exchanged.

Delicious refreshments completed a very enjoyable hour together.

Christian Science

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at all Christian Science Churches on Sunday. The Golden Text is Psalms 30:2, 3. One of the Scriptural citations is "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created" (Revelation 4:11). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Eddy, is "Christian Science reveals God, not as the author of sin, sickness and death, but as divine Principle, Supreme Being, Mind, exempt from all evil" (p. 127).

Benny on CBC as Sustainer

Jack Benny's program returned to the CBC Trans-Canada Network on October 1st. (6.00 - 6.30 p.m.) but his weekly Sunday evening show will be carried this year on a sustaining, instead of a commercial basis. This arrangement has been made by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and in making the announcement, E. L. Bushnell, CBC director-general of programs, stated that it had been made in response to a strong demand on the part of listeners across Canada. Normally, the broadcast would not have been carried on the CBC network since Benny's new sponsor does not operate in Canada.

The progress will be carried without the usual commercial announcements and these spots in the broadcast will be used to carry messages of national importance in connection with Canada's Victory Loan salvage campaigns price control, conservation, health, etc.

LETHBRIDGE WEEKLY LETTER

Crested Wheatgrass Makes Good Grazing

A great deal of work has been done with crested wheatgrass during the last few years and much has been written about the suitability of this grass as a remedy for failing range land. In the dry parts of western Canada this grass is more productive than either the native range grasses or any of the tame grasses commonly grown. During very dry years it often produces a crop when other grasses fail. The suitability of this grass for year long pasture has been tested at the Cessford Regrassing Station since 1942.

During the first summer, grazing conditions were very favourable and the cattle made fair gains. At the end of October the yearlings were removed from the experiment while the cows and calves were placed on the winter field. Early in December the snow became so deep that the cattle could no longer graze and were put on full feed of crested wheatgrass. The seasons of 1943 and 1944 were exceedingly dry in the Cessford district, the grass being brown most of the time. Despite this fact, the cows continued to do very well, producing two very good calf crops. During the winter of 1943-1944 the cattle grazed practically all winter as there was little snow cover. As both the summer and winter fields had been grazed to the ground it was necessary to use the hay field for pasture. Within the area of the field for hay was a strip of native grass that had been protected from grazing for eight years. Despite the fact that the crested wheatgrass was brown the cattle showed a preference for it over the native grass. Crested wheatgrass has always been considered an excellent pasture in the early spring and late fall at which times it is usually green. Although these grazing trials are of a preliminary nature, sufficient evidence has been gathered to show that it also makes good pasture even in seasons when the grass is brown. In an open winter, such as the last, it provided good winter pasture.

Thrift...

IS PRACTICAL PATRIOTISM

How many ways can you saveto LEND TO CANADA?

 In the homes, all over Canada, loyal, patriotic women are discovering new ways to economize... new ways to save money to lend to their country. A little saved here and a little saved there provides money to lend to Canada to help pay for the war. Small sums from millions of Canadians mount to billions when totalled up.

The amount that you may lend to your country may seem a small sum to you, but pennies make dimes and dimes make dollars, and Canada needs every single dollar that every Canadian can save and lend. Canada's need for borrowing is greater now than ever before. Every Canadian must lend, and lend more than before. Money you save and invest in Victory Bonds will benefit you in a personal way, too. You will have cash, when the war is over, to buy things you want for your home... things you are doing without now... cash to pay on a new home... to pay on a new car.
